That, in compliance with the current legislation, the Society will ensure that the financial documents are reported and finalised for presentation at the AGM.

26. Annual General Meeting

The AGM shall be held at such time and place in the month of February, in compliance with current legislation in each year as decided by the Committee.

- 26.1 Notice shall be given to the members, at least twenty-eight (28) days prior to the meeting.
- 26.2 Notice shall also be posted or emailed to all members with the details of nominations for the committee with biographical details of each, and the agenda at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the meeting.
- 26.3 The business to be conducted at the AGM shall be in accordance with an agenda determined by the Committee but shall at least include:
 - (i) Receiving from the Committee a Presidents report of the general concerns of the Society; a statement of the receipts and expenditures, and assets and liabilities of the Society, and the Treasurer's report on the financial status of the Society thereon covering the previous accounting year.
 - (ii) The election of up to sixteen (16) Committee members or of such vacancies that may occur from time to time.
 - (iii) Any motion for which notice has been given by a financial member at least thirty (30) days prior to the AGM.
 - (iv) Any general business of the Society.

27. Special General Meeting

- 27.1 The Secretary shall, at the request of the President, or on the written request of at least nine (9) members, call a Special General Meeting of members. At least twenty-eight (28) clear days' notice of such Special General Meeting shall be given to the financial members, and in all cases the notice given shall state briefly the business to be dealt with. No business other than that stated on the notice given shall be dealt with at the meeting. This notice with business to be conducted will also be mailed or emailed to all members.
- 27.2 In the event of no resolution then a second meeting must be held in a further fourteen (14) days.

28. Financial Year

The Financial Year for the Society shall be from the 1st January to 31st December in each calendar year.

29. Accounting

Such books of accounts shall be kept as determined by the Committee, or by current legislation as set by the Australian Taxation Office, whichever is of greater duration, and as are necessary for the proper efficient functioning of the Society and to clearly indicate to the auditor all financial transactions and the status of the Society.

30. Matters Not Dealt With

Any matter of any kind whatsoever not dealt with, or provided for in the rules of the Society may be dealt with in such manner as the Committee shall resolve by absolute majority, provided they are not in conflict with the Associations Incorporated Act 1985.

31. Amendment of Constitution

- 31.1 These rules may only be altered, added to or amended by resolution of a General Meeting provided that the notice of any proposed alteration for consideration by an AGM or Special General Meeting shall have been given to the Secretary at least thirty (30) days prior to such meeting.
- 31.2 Notice shall be given to members at least twenty-one (21) days prior to any meeting and will indicate that a proposed amendment(s) to the constitution shall be considered, with such a proposal available from the Secretary.

32. General Indemnity Rule

Every member of the Committee, or duly elected subcommittee members, shall be so indemnified out of the funds of the Society, against all costs, charges, damages and expenses by reason of any covenant entered into, or act or default done or made by him/her in the execution of these duties except if same shall have been occasioned through his/her own willful act, default or culpable negligence.

33. Winding up of the Society

- 33.1 In the event of the Society going into recess through lack of interest the last formally elected Committee shall call a Special General Meeting of members to consider the future of the Society.
- 33.2 At such meeting a motion of the Society may be put forward, and if such a motion is carried by the majority of two thirds of those present and voting thereon, the affairs, assets and the amount that remains after such dissolution and the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities of the Society shall be transferred to another organisation with similar purposes, that is charitable at law, and which is not carried on for the profit or gain of its individual members.

34. Transitional Arrangements

Where any provision of the Constitution is in conflict, or inconsistent with, another provision, such provision shall be read so that the meaning shall give effect to the intention of the new provisions adopted by these amendments.

35. Repeal

This Constitution shall repeal all previous Constitutions of the Society and shall take effect from the time it is adopted at the AGM or any Special General Meeting called for the purpose to amend the Constitution.
